TO ALL INTERESTED COOKS:

We wish to extend an invitation for you to join in our 31th Annual Pork Rib Cook-Off, which will be April 8, 2023, during Hogskin Holidays Festival.

We are enclosing, with this letter, an entry form, statement of liability, list of prizes and rules and regulations for the cook-off. Please take a few minutes to read these forms and complete them.

The contestant plus one guest are invited to a complimentary supper on Friday, April 7, 2023, at 6:30 p.m. Following the meal, we will have our contestants meeting. Contestants may begin setting up at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, April 7, 2023.

As in past years, you will again be able to sell barbecue by the pound; as well as sell food to eat on the premises. If you desire to have a food concession, please mark it on the application/entry form.

In addition to Pork Ribs, there will be a "Anything But" and dessert category competition. There is no entry fee to enter the dessert competition. However, you are required to enter both the rib and "anything but" categories if you wish to compete for the best dessert. Prepare your favorite dessert and bring it to Hogskin Holidays.

This year we are changing the name of the "Anything But" competition to the Butch Hedger "Anything But" Competition. Butch was one of the founding member of this competition and he dedicated many years with his hard work and he always had a smile on his face. On January 5th of this year Butch passed away. He will be truly missed and we want to honor his memory for many years to come.

For additional information about our festival you can check out the website. We look forward to seeing you in Hampton at the Hogskin Holidays Festival for one pig-squealing, pork-cookin good time!

Sincerely,

The Cook-Off Committee

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Contestants may enter and compete in one or all categories. However, you must compete in the pork rib cook-off in order to participate in the “anything but” competition. Competition in both categories qualifies you to compete in desserts.

There will be blind judging by qualified judges. There will be a brief explanation of judging procedures at the contestants meeting.

(1) There will be two on site categories in the Hogskin Holidays Pork Cook-Off: Pork Ribs and “Anything But”. Meat for the contest may not be precooked, sauced, injected, marinated, or cured in any way prior to inspection at the beginning of the contest.

a. -A PORK RIB ENTRY IS DEFINED AS PORTIONS OF THE HOG WHICH INCLUDE THE RIBS.

B. “ANYTHING BUT” ENTRY IS DEFINED AS YOUR CHOICE OF FAVORITE GRILLED RECIPE. THIS ENTRY CAN BE ANYTHING BUT PORK RIBS, AS LONG AS IT IS COOKED ON THE PREMISES ON THE GRILL.

(2) Each contestant competing shall supply all of their own meat, cooking ingredients, individual cooking utensils, preparation tables, etc. Provided to the contestants are a regulation cooking area and necessary sanitary facilities. If a larger area is needed, special arrangements can be made by contacting the sponsor. All contestants must adhere to all electrical, fire and other codes by the city, county, state, or federal codes.

(3) Contestants may begin setting up at 11:00 AM, Friday, prior to the cook-off on Saturday.

(4) All meat must be inspected before cooking by a cook-off committee member. After the meat is inspected, you may marinate and begin cooking the meat.

(5) Each contestant must cook enough meat to provide the required samples for judging.

a. The Cook-off Committee will provide containers for all individual servings that will be turned in to the judges for the Rib, Anything But, and sauce competitions.

If any other container is turned in, then it will be disqualified.

b. Contestants are allowed to use their own containers for the dessert competition only.

If you need containers from the committee, let us know at the Friday night meeting because they will not be in the provided paper sacks.

c. All of the necessary containers will be prenumbered on the inside of each container and fully disclosed in a brown bag so the number is not visible. Each bag will have a different number for each contestant.

Example: nothing visible on outside of brown bag. On the inside of bag there will be 8 containers for ribs and 8 containers for anything but and they will all have the same number on the inside of the lids.

Also in the bag, there will be 8 small bowls with numbered lids for the sauce. A small paper bag will be provided to put the 8 bowls in so the number won't be visible.

You will be provided an extra bag so you will have 1 to turn in ribs and sauce together and 1 to turn in Butch Hedger "Anything But" and dessert together if you want to do that. Using the bags isn't necessary, it's just for convenience if you choose to do so.

Butch Hedger "Anything But" Competition

If you are entering this competition, you must turn in 8 EA individual servings in the 8 provided containers. This is to be turned in at 12 PM. You can turn in 5 minutes before 12 PM or 5 minutes after 12 PM.

Dessert Competition

If you are entering this competition, you must turn in 4 EA individual servings in 4 containers. If you use your own container, it is your responsibility to put your number on the container where it isn't visible until opened by the judges. This is to be turned in at 12 PM. You can turn in 5 minutes before 12 PM or 5 minutes after 12 PM.

Rib Competition

You must turn in 8 EA (1 or 2 bone) ribs in the 8 provided containers. Green leafy lettuce is the only garnish that can be used and this is optional, not required.

This is to be turned in at 1 PM. You can turn in 5 minutes before 1 PM or 5 minutes after 1 PM.

Sauce Competition

If you are entering this competition, you must turn in 8 EA individual servings in the provided containers. This is to be turned in at 1 PM. You can turn in 5 minutes before 1 PM or 5 minutes after 1 PM.

(6) Application Fees are based on category entered. The fees are $150 for the rib category and $100 for the "Anything but" category. The selection committee reserves the right to reject any application. If your application is not accepted, your fees will be refunded by mail. No refunds of the application fees will be made once you have been accepted in the contest, whether you appear or not. All checks should be made to Hogskin Holidays Cook-Off. You may mail your application to the following address: Hogskin Holidays Cook-Off Hogskin Holidays Festival P.O. Box 99 Hampton, Arkansas 71744

(7) A meeting for all contestants will be held Friday, following the contestant supper. The rules, regulations and other necessary information will be discussed at that time.

(8) It is the responsibility of each contestant to see that the contest area is kept clean and that the area is cleaned following the contest. It is imperative that our clean up be thorough. Any space left in disarray or with loose trash and garbage will disqualify the team from future participation. Trash receptacles will be supplied

(9) The chief cook will be held responsible for the conduct of his team and guests. Excessive use of alcoholic beverages will be grounds for disqualification. Under no circumstances are alcoholic beverages to be distributed (given away or sold) to the general public by contestants.

(10)The barbecue committee reserves the right to make additional regulations as the situation warrants.

(11)Decisions of the barbecue committee chairman and judges are final.

(12)Violation of Rules and Regulations of the contest may result in disqualification, expulsion from the grounds, and/or disqualification from future participation.

(13)If you have any questions, need additional information or if you cannot attend after being signed up, please write us at: Hogskin Holidays, P.O. Box 99, Hampton, Arkansas 71744 or contact Janice Fife (870-918-0194) or Terry Anders (870-918-635)
